

HOW TO HOLD AN INSTANT TEA PARTY

Congress is wheeling and dealing: Health Care, Cap and Trade, Internet Reform...the list is endless. Now, more than ever, they must hear from us! You are frustrated and angry with our politicians in Washington. You have already called and written your representatives. You want to take more action, but are not sure what to do.

HOLD AN INSTANT TEA PARTY!

YOU can effect action by encouraging your fellow Mid-Southerners to contact their representatives. An instant tea party is a short-notice gathering in response to an imminent action by the government.

- Make signs with the phone numbers of representatives and posters against whichever imminent action you are protesting!
- Pick a busy intersection and have a few friends join you. (No more than 5 people at any 1 corner)
- You don't need much time; even 15-20 minutes can make a big impact!
- Do it at your convenience-on your lunch break, or before or after work.
- It's easy, fun and effective!

If enough of us hold our own instant tea parties, we can generate many phone calls to our elected officials. This is a great way to do something positive to change the direction of our country. We hope you will try your own instant tea party and report back how many honks you get. Bonus points if you see someone dialing their phone or writing the numbers down!

Individually we are raindrops, but together we are a FLOOD!
